Step Five

Admitted to God, to ourselves and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.

Tradition V

Each group has but one primary purpose – to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

Concept V

Throughout our world service structure, a traditional "Right of Appeal" ought to prevail, thus assuring us that minority opinion will be heard and that petitions for the redress of personal grievances will be carefully considered.

More About Alcoholism Chapter 3

Most of us have been unwilling to admit we were real alcoholics. No person likes to think he is bodily and mentally different from his fellows. Therefore, it is not surprising that our drinking careers have been characterized by countless vain attempts to prove we could drink like other people. The idea that somehow, someday he will control and enjoy his drinking is the great obsession of every abnormal drinker. The persistence of this illusion is astonishing. Many pursue it into the gates of insanity or death.

We learned that we had to fully concede to our innermost selves that we were alcoholics. This is the first step in recovery. The delusion that we are like other people, or presently may be, has to be smashed.

We alcoholics are men and women who have lost the ability to control our drinking. We know that no real alcoholic ever recovers control. All of us felt at times that we were regaining control, but such intervals - usually brief - were inevitably followed by still less control, which led in time to pitiful and incomprehensible demoralization. We are convinced to a man that alcoholics of our type are in the grip of a progressive illness. Over any considerable period we get worse, never better.

We are like men who have lost their legs; they never grow new ones. Neither does there appear to be any kind of treatment which will make alcoholics of our kind like other men. We have tried every imaginable remedy. In some instances there has been brief recovery, followed always by a still worse relapse. Physicians who are familiar with alcoholism agree there is no such thing as making a normal drinker out of an alcoholic. Science may one day accomplish this, but it hasn't done so yet.

Despite all we can say, many who are real alcoholics are not going to believe they are in that class. By every form of self-deception and experimentation, they will try to prove themselves exceptions to the rule, therefore nonalcoholic. If anyone who is showing inability to control his drinking can do the right- about-face and drink like a gentleman, our hats are off to him. Heaven knows, we have tried hard enough and long enough to drink like other people!

Here are some of the methods we have tried: Drinking beer only, limiting the number of drinks, never drinking alone, never drinking in the morning, drinking only at home, never having it in the house, never drinking during business hours, drinking only at parties, switching from scotch to brandy, drinking only natural wines, agreeing to resign if ever drunk on the job, taking a trip, not taking a trip, swearing off forever (with and without a solemn oath), taking more physical exercise, reading inspirational books, going to health farms and sanitariums, accepting voluntary commitment to asylums - we could increase the list ad infinitum.

We do not like to pronounce any individual as alcoholic, but you can quickly diagnose yourself. Step over to the nearest barroom and try some controlled drinking. Try to drink and stop abruptly. Try it more than once. It will not take long for you to decide, if you are honest with yourself about it. It may be worth a bad case of jitters if you get a full knowledge of your condition.

THE MANAGER'S CORNER

From Your Special Worker

We will not be painting the first weekend in May. It's been put back until the first weekend in June. By that time, I hope to have new ceiling tiles. This will be a work in progress for awhile. If you can make it the first weekend in June, call Central Office and leave your name and phone number so we can call to remind you.

Bev C. Office Manager

Thank you to the delegates at the last meeting for approving my contract for one year. It has been quite a challenge since I've been here and I want to thank all the people who have been a part of that. Your central office has money in the bank, books on the shelves and the phones are being answered. We still are looking for someone to answer the phones on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 1pm to 5 pm. If you are interested, give us a call. Service work is a good way to keep connected. FYI: Central Office will be closed on Monday, May 30th, Memorial Day.

Bev C. Office Manager

GROUP CONTRIBUTIONS has changed somewhat in format. It was necessary to implement a new CCFAA ID numbering format. For most groups, the last two or three digits of the number are the same as their previous number, but all groups now have a five digit number. Please refer to this number if possible whenever corresponding with Central Office, particularly in regards to financial transactions. This notice will remain in the BTW until all the groups are familiar with the system.

Bev C. Office Manager

Please don't forget the CCFAA Picnic on August 21st at Elk Grove Park. If your group hasn't signed up for any event yet perhaps you could discuss it at your next group business meeting. Any and all help would be appreciated by our picnic chairperson Sandy T. Any questions call us at the office or call Sandy. We will give you her phone number when you call. If you would like to attend any of the picnic planning meetings starting in May they will meet the first and third Thursday at 6:00pm. Any and all are welcome.

Bev C. Office Manager

The Special Needs Chair (Micki H.) gave a report at the delegates meeting and I will put it in with the minutes of that meeting. Micki would love to hear from anyone who can help on that committee.

Bev C. Office Manager

Flyers: Please be advised that flyer information will be entered in the Group News, Speaker Meeting and Special Event sections of the By the Way. This format will also be employed to convey your information on the website. Look for these changes on the website in May.

We received a letter from New York stating that the price of books will be going up as of July 1, 2005. All books will go up in price $1.00 each except the Big Book. The letter is on file here if anyone is interested in coming by to read it. At the next OOC meeting we will discuss the impact this will have on the office. New York is also charging shipping cost to every order less than $250, which does not affect this office at all, however it might affect the smaller central offices who don't buy in large quantities.

Did You Know?

There came next to the lectern a figure that not many A.A.'s had seen before, the Episcopal clergyman Sam Shoemaker. It was from him that Dr. Bob and I in the beginning had absorbed most of the principles that were afterward embodied in the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous, steps that express the heart of A.A.'s way of life. Dr Silkworth gave us the needed knowledge of our illness, but Sam Shoemaker had given us the concrete knowledge of what we could do about it. One showed us the mysteries of the lock that held us in prison; the other passed on the spiritual keys by which we were liberated.

Dr. Sam looked scarcely a day older than he had almost twenty-one years earlier when I first met him and his dynamic group at Calvary's parish house in New York. As he began to speak, his impact fell on us there in the Kiel Auditorium just as it had upon Lois and me years before. As always, he called a spade a spade, and his blazing eagerness, earnestness, and crystal clarity drove home his message point by point. With all his vigor and power of speech, Sam nevertheless kept himself right down to our size. Here was a man quite as willing to talk about his sins as about anyone else's. He made himself a witness of God's power and love just as any A.A. might have done.

Sam's appearance before us was further evidence that many a channel had been used by Providence to create Alcoholics Anonymous. And none had been more vitally needed than the one opened through Dr. Sam Shoemaker and his Oxford Group associates of a generation before. The basic principles which the Oxford Groupers had taught were ancient and universal ones, the common property of mankind. Certain of the former O.G. attitudes and applications had proved unsuited to A.A.'s purpose, and Sam's own conviction about these lesser aspects of the Oxford Groups had changed and become more like our A.A. views of today. But the important thing is this: the early A.A. got its ideas of self examination, acknowledgement of character defects, restitution for harm done, and working with others straight from the Oxford Groups and directly from Sam Shoemaker, their former leader in America, and from nowhere else. He will always be found in our annals as the one whose inspired example and teaching did most to show us how to create the spiritual climate in which we alcoholics may survive and then proceed to grow. A.A. owes a debt of timeless gratitude for all that God sent us through Sam and his friends in the days of A.A.'s infancy.

Bill W, AA Comes Of Age pp.38-40

While I was still reminiscing about the old times in New York, the names of more of my alcoholic friends loomed up. I remembered Henry P., my partner in Works Publishing and the book enterprise. Among all the prospects Dr. Silkworth had pointed out to me at Towns Hospital, Henry in 1935 was the first to sober up. He had been a big-time executive and salesman, and he turned his really prodigious enthusiasm into the formation of the New York group. Many a Jerseyite can remember his impact over there, too. When in 1938 the Foundation found it could not raise money to publish the A.A. book, it was largely Henry's insistence that caused us to set up Works Publishing, Inc., and while we were working on the book, his endless hounding of the subscribers to Works Publishing kept enough money trickling in (barely enough) to finish the job.

About that time, there appeared on the New York scene another character, Fitz M., one of the most loveable people that A.A. will ever know. Fitz was a minister's son and deeply religious, an aspect of his nature which is revealed in his story entitled "Our Southern Friend" in the Big Book. Fitz fell at once into hot argument with Henry about the religious content of the coming volume. A newcomer named Jimmy B., who like Henry was an ex-salesman and former atheist, also got into the hassles. Fitz wanted a powerfully religious document; Henry and Jimmy would have none of it. They wanted a psychological book which would lure the reader in; when he finally arrived among us, there would be enough time to tip him off about the spiritual character of our society. As we worked feverishly on this project Fitz made trip after trip to New York from his Maryland home to insist on raising the spiritual pitch of the A.A. book. Out of this debate came the spiritual form and substance of the document, notably the expression "God as we understood him," which proved to be a ten-strike. As umpire of these disputes, I was obliged to go pretty much down the middle, writing in spiritual rather than religious or entirely psychological terms.

Both Valerie and Derrick were asked if they would be following the traditions. Maureen W. suggested we use the 6 question questionnaire that is available for new groups and have Central Office check on this. Dale stated he would get that and address it and have it at the next meeting.

V. Reports of Trusted Servants

A. CCFAA Chairperson – Dale M Present/Verbal Report

Ivo V. volunteered to be PI/CPC Chairperson. Talked at length with Ivo. He has been doing this job for District 27. He has lots of ideas. Spoke with Karen our Recording Secretary. Due to personal reasons she doesn't feel she can give CCFAA the proper time to get the job done and do it right. She resigned as Recording Secretary. I will be asking later for volunteers for this position. We sent around reviews for the Office Manager and turned it into the OOC Chair. Had a discussion with Sandy T regarding having a table at CCFAA Picnic for AA Literature. A volunteer sheet for sign up will be sent around. This will be a venue to answer questions regarding what CCFAA is about and sell any literature as needed.

B. Assistant Chairperson/CNIA Liaison Report – Bill P. Present/Verbal report. No CNIA meeting. No Report.

C. Office Operations Committee Chairperson – Valerie C. – Present/Verbal and Written Report.

1. My minutes don't reflect this, but one of the Major items of business for the OOC was the 6-month review of the Office Manager. And she unanimously had high marks and we have offered her a one year contract.

2. Minutes of OOC Meeting, March 15, 2005

All OOC Members were in attendance. Also a visitor: Dennis from Rebellion Dogs

Meeting opened at 6:00 pm with Serenity Prayer.

a) Office Manager gave her report and the following items were discussed:

- Motion approved to sell the six wallet cards with AA information at Central Office, 5 for $1.00.
- Flyer mailing: 103 out of 384 groups. Please get the group updates to Central Office ASAP. (In December we had $450 in returned mail charges as a result of this.) Please get the word out.
- No one has yet volunteered to help paint the office the weekend of May 7-8. Without help this can't be done by just one person.
- May 9, 2005 Bev will attend EDD class about California employment laws. Amy will cover the office.
- QuickBooks has been purchased. Bev has been coming to work early to begin entering inventory data into the new system.
- Picnic meeting is held at Central Office the 3rd Thursday of every month.

D. Treasurer – Alice J. – Present/Written Report

1. Maureen requested the OOC and the treasurer look into the amount of money being spent on accounting (Line 32). Maureen has concerns about the high expense. We have been watching this and looking at why this is so high. If it does go higher will readjust budget. The OOC will address this at their next meeting.

2. Micki asked about postal expenditures as discussed in OOC Chair report. This was an example of the amount of money spent on returned By The Ways do to groups not getting their information in the By The Way. This was reported in December 2004.

One of those calls was in the realm of a 12 step call, which was deferred. Word is getting out through the By The Way, Central Office and fellow alcoholics and surgery with information

H. Special Needs – Micki H. – Present/Written Report (cont'd)

I have received some calls and have been able to call people back and answer many of their questions. Approached members who have been house ridden due to illness and surgery with information regarding our Special Needs Committee. In all cases they have told me that their "Home Group" has provided meetings for them and they feel very comfortable with that. Thanked Central Office for the support provided. Phone calls received were as follows: 2 volunteer calls; 5 In need calls (one of which was a 12 step call); and 3 inquiry calls. We still need volunteers!

I. Buck of the Month – David S. – Present/Verbal Report: Created Birthday Flyers for Birthday Club and added a sobriety dateline. Can e-mail a request for flyers. Created new flyer for By the Way Flyer subscriptions for individuals.

J. NCAA Delegate – Bill J. Present/Verbal Report: Attended NCCAA Conference in March. Session covered history of NCCAA. Interesting information regarding history of AA in Northern California. See <http://www.ncc-aa.org> for more history information. Thank you to who ever picked up the flyers for our area. I'll pick them up next time. Next meeting is: Jun 10, 11, and 12 in San Jose. Flyers are available. Register early.

K. Hospitals and Institutions – Kimberly F. – Present/Written Report: H&I meets 3rd Thursday of each month. The next meeting is April 21st at 6 p.m. at Carrows Restaurant on 28th and J Street. All Groups are encouraged to have a representative attend this meeting. The most important event going on this month is the H&I Conference next weekend in Galt. Still need lots of help. Brought a list of facilities that we have H&I meetings at along with the facility coordinators. Please contact the coordinator to the facility you are interested in. Brought pamphlets, newsletters and information on what the pink can is for. Sign up sheets for newsletter which comes out four times a year are available. If your group is interested in a workshop please contact Chris W at 455-1290.

L. Special Committee Chairperson: Picnic Chairperson – Sandy T. – Present/Written Report

Reminder: Committee meets monthly; 3rd Thursday; Central Office; 6:30 pm B 7:30 pm. This is published in the Master Calendar. Beginning in May, committee will meet 1st and 3rd Thursday; same time & place. At the March meeting, the committee agreed to pay the DJ $300 for the day. He normally charges $125/hr. He will provide DJ services, equipment; MC the Top Dog Variety Show; & will get the judges for the variety show. Reminder, DJ is Blain from Traditional, aka Sunshine Kid. Last year's DJ was playing during the variety show resulting in a lot of technical difficulties. The committee is still unsure of the group commitments for bingo and used books, though we have an idea. No representatives have attended the committee meetings; the groups that did them in the past have been called, and no responses have been received.

If no one shows up this coming Thursday, those activities will be listed in the By the Way as needs. We received the preliminary estimates from the meat vendor (O=Connor=s), and the vendor that provides snow cones, popcorn, tables, chairs, canopies, and games (Fun Services.) The committee will be reviewing those estimates at the next meeting.

May 2005

Commitments Received Since My Last Report:

- Hamburgers/Hotdogs: John McG for hamburgers/hotdogs, who also confirmed that they provide all the condiments, lettuce and tomatoes, and buns while CCFAA provides the meat. They ordered the same amount as last year.
- Chicken Dinners: Don J. confirmed that CCFAA provides the meat. They ordered the same amount as last year.
- Laura R., Traditional, got the speakers. They are Alan H. and Jessie P. She will check with Traditional to see if they will sponsor the Jail and the pull tabs.
- Group 3 is doing the White Elephant booth
- Greenhaven is doing Bingo.
- Betty K agreed to be our treasurer.

- Mary R. from Galt agreed to coordinate the H & I service booth and confirmed that the Galt Fellowship will do sodas & water.
- Ivo will seek volunteers and provide literature for the PI/CPC service booth.
- Dale M. agreed to ask CCFAA for volunteers for the CCFAA service booth. I provided Dale with a sign-up sheet for this.
- In May, I will be meeting with several Al-Anon people to coordinate the Al-Anon service booth.
- Sunday Serenity is probably doing Used Books. I will confirm this by my next report.

Since we aren't doing carnival games and are doing athletic games, we need groups to sponsor athletic types of kids games and to both put the games on and to provide the prizes.

Suggestions are sack races, wacky crochet, and balloon pop, in which balloons are loosely tied to kids ankles on long ribbon & the kids run around trying to pop the other kids balloons - the winner being the last guy with a balloon. Also, donations of new kid's prizes for the Top Dog Show would be appreciated.

Dale M. brought it to my attention that I was using last names on the Internet CCFAA Picnic Blog. I corrected that on 4/15/05.

My sincere apologies to those people anyone whom I might have offended.

The people whose last names were used were my own, George M. - softball, and the office manager Beverly C. I am grateful to Dale for bringing this to my attention. It was an inadvertent mistake.

John McG. told me that it was inaccurate that there was a lack of volunteers last year at clean up. The committee has agreed to donate 10 chicken dinner tickets to a recovery home in exchange for manpower. I will report what John told me to the committee this coming Thursday so that we will sell those 10 tickets rather than donate them. Apparently, my information was wrong. I brought 20 each Picnic Flyers; the new posts of the blog which states our needs; & Top Dog Show Fliers to distribute. Once those 20 are gone, please give me your e-mail address and I will send it to you to distribute to your home group. They are expensive to print.
