

AUGUST 2017

MAKING A LIST

Like most of the steps, when I first surrendered and came to A.A. I didn't have a clue about the depth I would have to delve into my past behaviors in order to free myself from all of the guilt and shame that resulted from them. I thought that all I would be talking about was my drinking habits. When faced with the 12 steps I had my own way of being selective about what part of the suggestions I would embrace and which suggestions I would simply dismiss as, ok for you but not necessary for me. I didn't think that my problems were about mental, emotional and spiritual matters. If I could just stop drinking, things would be just fine. It didn't take long for me to realize what they were explaining to me about the wreckage of the past and how to relieve myself of the horrible memories that extended all the way back to my adolescent years.

I was one of the fortunate ones that lost the obsession to very first day so I dismissed three as being ok folks but I could not face but by the time I was sober years I finally let and did steps relief I got from and thorough about those two steps gave me the desire and courage to proceed through steps six and seven, and those steps will never be finished as they are basically about spiritual growth concerning my thoughts and actions. Then came step eight and the need to identify those people that I had harmed in the past, and I would have to make amends to. Can they be serious? I don't think that a day ever went by during my drinking days that I didn't do something to harm someone. This list would be endless. With that thought in mind, I delayed doing it until I settled down and came up with an understanding that I could start my list and see where it would lead to. I began with the names of those people that I let down the most such as my first wife, my son, my siblings, my mother and my closest friends that were like family to me. Then I spiraled outward to the people I worked with or played with, such as golfing and fishing, etc. Then, as I started to remember all of those drinking buddies, bar tenders and girlfriends through all those years and I had to be realistic about it.

To do this, I could spend the rest of my life chasing people down to apologize and that is when I had to step on the breaks. Thinking that I would need to chase down all of those ships in the night, was what held me back from doing it. What I finally did was first to be sure that I no longer did those regrettable deeds of yesterday so that I wasn't being hypocritical about it. Then I handled the ones that were renting room in the front of my brain box, then as I said, I spiraled outward and handled the ones that were closest to me, and as time went on I found the occasion when I would run into an old friend and if I had anything left undone, I would ask him, "Have you ever done something that you really regretted?" His answer is usually, "Hell yes, who hasn't? Then I say. Can we talk? This leveled the playing field. Who can fault a person who, like him, has made mistakes, but then corrected them, made restitution and lives an honest unselfish life? None of us are perfect. Don't be bogged down by over thinking this step, but on the other hand, be prepared to jump at the opportunity when it arises.

Rick R.

A Tornado

The alcoholic is like a tornado roaring his way through the lives of others. Hearts are broken. Sweet relationships are dead. Affections have been uprooted. Selfish and inconsiderate habits have kept the home in turmoil. We feel a man is unthinking when he says that sobriety is enough. He is like the farmer who came up out of his cyclone cellar to find his home ruined. To his wife, he remarked, "Don't see anything the matter here, Ma. Ain't it grand the wind stopped blowin'?"

The Eighth Step

“Made a list of all persons we have harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.”

Steps Eight and Nine are concerned with personal relations. First, we take a look backward and try to discover where we have been at fault; next we make a vigorous attempt to repair the damage we have done; and third, having thus cleaned away the debris of the past, we consider how, with our newfound knowledge of ourselves, we may develop the best possible relations with every human being we know.

- Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions pg. 77 -

The Eighth Tradition

“Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.”

A.A.'s lifelines have to be tended. So we hire A.A. staff members. We pay them well, and they earn what they get. They are professional secretaries, but they certainly are not professional A.A.'s.

“The Job was not to do Twelfth Step work; it was to make Twelfth Step work possible.

- Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions pg. 169-168 -

The Eighth Concept

“ The Trustees of the General Service board act in two primary capacities: (a) With respect to the larger matters of over-all policy and finance, they are the principal planners and administrators. They and their primary committees directly manager these affairs. (b) But with respect to our separately incorporated and constantly active services, the relation of the trustees is mainly that of full stock ownership and of custodial oversight which they exercise through their ability to elect al directors of these entities.”

This Concept deals with the ways the General Service Board “discharges its heavy obligations,” and its relationship with its two subsidiary corporations: A.A. World services, Inc. and the A.A. Grapevine, Inc.

"It seems to me that one of the major purposes of the last three Steps is to keep us from complacency, to keep us growing so that we don't fall back into our old, sick ways and perhaps even into active alcoholism."

We Review

Returning home we find a place where we can be quiet for an hour, carefully reviewing what we have done. We thank God from the bottom of our heart that we know Him better. Taking this book down from our shelf we turn to the page which contains the twelve steps. Carefully reading the first five proposals we ask if we have omitted anything, for we are building an arch through which we shall walk a free man at last.

IV. Trusted Servant ReportsA. Chairperson Report – Kathryn C (absent) Report given by Amy T

Welcome to the June CCF Delegate's meeting! Thank you for being here today.

First, I wanted to clarify that we do, in fact, pass the basket for the 7th Tradition during the roll call. I (Kathryn) was confused about this, but it clearly states on the agenda that we do it. I (Kathryn) apologize for the confusion.

Today we have a quote about service from Dr. Bob:

It is a most wonderful blessing to be relieved of the terrible curse with which I was afflicted. My health is good and I have regained my self-respect and the respect of my colleagues. My home life is ideal and my business is as good as can be expected in these uncertain times.

I spend a great deal of time passing on what I learned to others who want and need it badly. I do it for four reasons:

1. Sense of duty.
2. It is a pleasure.
3. Because in so doing I am paying my debt to the man who took time to pass it on to me.
4. Because every time I do it I take out a little more insurance for myself against a possible slip.

From "Doctor Bob's Nightmare" Robert H. Smith, M.D.

I've included the last bit of this story on the back so you can, if you feel so inclined, read it on your own.

I believe the sense of duty cannot be forced upon anyone, but is something that we model to others. This is a "program of attraction rather than promotion" and this applies to the ideal of service and duty to the men and women who are still suffering. This also applies to the men and women who are trying to hold meetings and print the meeting schedule and invite people to their potluck etc. Please continue to "get outside of yourself" and model how to "be of service". Without you, there is no fellowship. ehem we still need a special events chair.

Thank you all for your dedication and service.

Today is a great day to be sober!

Kathryn C
CCF Chairperson, 2017

"...principles before personalities."

B. Assistant Chair/CNIA Liaison – Amy T

I attended the CNIA meeting today, informed them of the CCFAA Annual Picnic in Elk Grove.

C. Office Operations Committee – Carlos A

1. Discussed Jackie B's new play, I Am Responsible; A journey through the history of A.A.'s Third Legacy. It will be at the Guild Theatre on Sunday, September 17 at 3:00 PM.
2. We have one more year on our lease with a lease option. We are now comparing other options in advance of discussions on signing the lease.
3. Any CCF Chairperson who wants an increase in their budget should attend the August OOC meeting as we will be starting the 2018 Budget process.
 - John gave the treasurer's report.

A. Office Manager's Report – Rae W

July 11, 2017

1. Semi-annual inventory for the period ending June 30th took place on Sunday, July 9th.
2. Results will be in the July financial statements.
3. Second Quarter Payroll and Sales tax returns, deposits and reports will be completed by the due date, July 31st.
4. Jackie B. and Recovery Works Theater have a new production: I Am Responsible. There is an available performance matinee date of September 17th for the Guild Theater in Sacramento. We are looking at the feasibility of hosting this performance.
5. Betty K. and Picnic Committee volunteers are working hard to make this year's event the most fun ever! Join us on Sunday, August 20th at Elk Grove Park.
6. The annual Intergroup/Central Offices/ AAWS/AA Grapevine seminar will be the first weekend in October in Herndon, VA. I look forward to reporting back on best practices and good operating procedures from offices in the US and Canada.
And all is well....Rae W.

B. Treasurer's Report –John G (Absent) report given by Dreigh P

We are in good shape. Prepaid expenses are the amount spent for the canopies we purchased for the picnic. Literature sales are above the budget; in-house publications are below; and group contributions are right on. Let your groups know we are doing fine. If possible, ask your group to make their contributions monthly, or at least quarterly. That helps with the cash flow and budgeting process. Help us out with the Faithful Fivers and Birthday Club; these are contributions that go directly to support our Inter-Group Service Center.

H. By-Laws & Procedures Chairperson's Report –Kim M

No Report, but suggested that we all give $7.27 on July 27, 2017 to GSO at aa.org. It was said that if every member gave that amount our General Service Office would be in the black for the year.

I. PI/CPC – Joan T

The committee discussed the response from the Sacramento Superior Court. A committee member wants to contact Roseville Courts to see if we can be of service. Marshall, Jon and Joan are going to participate in the SACYPAA Servicepalooza in September. We are moving on from the DUI School, because we have put a lot of effort in trying to reach out to them in every way we can with no response.

J. Birthday Club/Faithful Fivers – Wendy S

Thank you for everyone talking about the Birthday Club and Faithful Fivers. Please give your groups' Birthday person some of these flyers so they can be distributed. You don't need to sign up through your bank, you can just check in when you can; everything helps.

Sometimes Quickly

Ebby T. was in deep chicken fat trouble! He had been arrested for running his car into the side of a Manchester, Vermont, lady's house, then had the nerve to ask her to bring him a coffee. She instead called the town constable. Following a second unknown incident, he was, for the third time, arrested for drunkenly shooting pigeons in his front yard with a loud double barreled shotgun. He faced six-months in either Winsor Prison or the Brattleboro Asylum.

Though not being very religious, Ebby prayed to God in doubtless desperation . . . to quote: “. . . as I had never prayed before.” Ebby prayed these words: “I really mean this, I want to quit this drinking.” Ebby then had a sudden release from drinking that lasted two years and seven months—enough time for him to carry his sobriety message to Bill Wilson. Ebby's release happened quickly.

Clarence S., founder of Cleveland AA, was quoted to say: “Bill W. made the touchdown, but it was Ebby who handed him the ball.”

Bill W., while detoxing at Towns Hospital, was only about three days sober when he went through what was to eventually become our Twelve Steps (p. 13). He tells us: “I ruthlessly faced my sins and became willing to have my new found Friend (God) take them away, root and branch.” Of course, this was to become Step Seven four years later when he wrote the Big Book immediate results from his were cast aside as he made a bee-helpless drunken sots find The miracle mentioned in sufficient to bring about recovery indeed taken place in short order.

Dr. Bob S., arriving home from a became willing to make amends to other professorial associates, drinker.” This action, of course, put jeopardy, but he was willing to go to obsession to drink hung on for over Dr. Bob's release happened quickly!

several days drunken spree, members of his medical staff and admitting that he was a “secret his reputation as a doctor in any lengths. Although his two years, he never drank again.

The timing of the above sequence of events allowed AA to start when it did. I sometimes hear around the tables: “Take your time to work the Twelve Steps.” Aren't we lucky that these three founding members didn't wait to take the necessary action of surrender. I am happy to know that the Big Book has a time table. Please notice as how the Step Ten directions use the words: “at once,” “immediately,” and “quickly!” (p. 84)

Quote of the Month

"Self-centeredness is a poison to my emotional system. It frustrates my every effort toward a comfortable and happy existence. A terrible chain reaction begins. Fear sets in. Anger, resentment, and self-pity become my guiding forces. My only escape is to put this awful selfishness aside and become involved with the world around me."

December 1979

"The Root of Our Troubles," Emotional Sobriety

Book Of The Month

No Matter What: Dealing With Adversity in Sobriety

All recovering alcoholics have had to deal with adversity throughout sobriety...a serious illness, an ugly divorce, the death of a child, the loss of a house to fire or to the bank. Despite the fear, pain or self-pity we are in when these tragedies strike, drinking is not an option. The stories in this book show how AA members use the tools of the program and embrace the Fellowship to deal with tough issue
