On the 10th Step. . .

"Continued to take moral inventory and when we were wrong, promptly admitted it."

Notice that the word "continued" is a past participle. We take it to mean that this Step is an unvarying and unceasing thing. It is a part of the program that must be repeated day by day. It is also a reminder that the program is a living thing--a way of growing.

Remember how hard it was to accomplish the 4th Step--the first moral inventory? Many of us finally got around to make it. When we finished, we felt a lot better. At least our own slate was wiped clean. But some of us let the matter end there. The 10th Step serves to warn that the inventory process--begun in the 4th Step--is only a beginning.

Now let's look at the rest of the Step. "When we were wrong, we promptly admitted it," is another of those easy-to-say but hard-to-do things. Most of us are fairly egocentric; it is part of the illness.

In our personal for us to admit that we anything. Early in our we were still in the overboard on this us a sort of pleasure to stinkers; that we were you still feeling the relations, it's a bit harder were wrong about sobriety, especially when remorse stage, we went matter. It gave some of admit that we were going to do better. Are same way?

There are several sound reasons for the 10th Step. In the first place, no alcoholic can afford to nurse resentments. If we know we are wrong about something and do not admit it, we are likely to start building a nest for resentments. In the second place, none of us can afford to be dishonest. We believe that it is dishonest to "think wet and talk dry." We believe it is dishonest to "get by with something" at the expense of someone else. When we are wrong and fail to admit it--even to ourselves--we are back in the old drinking state of mind--dishonest, phony, stubborn and arrogant.

But enough of this preaching. The really important thing is the effect this 10th Step will have on you. It will make you happier, kinder, more serene. We know a number of A.A.s who practice this Step in their lives. We envy them because they have peace of mind.

Start practicing the 10th Step now. It's a principle of living that can be used everywhere. Begin at home and then carry it to your office. You will be surprised how startled--and pleased--your friends will be when you start taking your share of the blame!

Book Of The Month

Voices of Women in AA

Voices of Women in AA is a collection of 61 stories from Grapevine. The book begins with articles by or about women who contributed to AA early in its history, followed by stories by some of the program's earliest female members. Sections are devoted to spirituality, sponsorship, life changes, relationships, family, careers and friendships. The collection concludes with a chapter devoted to women's meetings. The stories demonstrate the various ways women alcoholics—often with great courage—find sobriety in AA and embrace the program to live rich and rewarding lives.

“The five H's combine into a powerful formula for success. Starting with Hope, passing through Honesty into a gracious Humility, we become Human again, taking our rightful places in society and, by living a well rounded life, develop an integrated personality free of the stresses that urge us to drink. Finally, through Helpfulness we express gratitude and pass on to others some of the blessings we have enjoyed these recent weeks, months, years. Truly a Magic Formula for Continued Sobriety....”

IV. Trusted Servant Reports*A. Chairperson Report – Kathryn C

Welcome to the October CCF Delegate's meeting! Thank you for being here today.

First! November is Gratitude month! We have gratitude cans available for each delegate to take back to their groups.

Next up! I want to remind you that next month we will have elections! Please spread the word. These service positions are integral to how Central Office functions, but you never do anything alone. I have made plenty of mistakes and someone has always been there to help. Another way we get to practice how to live out there.

Ok, a refresher on where we are at in the budget approval process.

1. Last month, the proposed 2018 budget was presented to you. You took it back to your groups to gather questions.
  2. This month we discuss the budget (hence the candy!). This is the time to ask all your questions! We'll do this during the old business section on the agenda.
- Next month, in November, we will all vote to approve or reject the proposed budget. It will be a straight up or down vote.

Finally, next month our meeting will begin at 2:00 PM. We'll have some snacks and I encourage you to also bring snacks if you feel like it.

Again, thank you all!

Today is a great day to be sober!

Kathryn C.

"... principles before personalities."

B. Assistant Chair/CNIA Liaison – Amy T

I did not attend the CNIA meeting this morning. We have two new delegates, listed above.

C. Office Operations Committee – Carlos A

1. The November Delegate Meeting begins at 2:00 PM; the new delegate orientation begins at 1:00 PM.
2. We discussed the 2018 Budget.
3. Beth B will replace Karen Y as the Central Office Volunteer Coordinator at the beginning of the year.
4. There was a discussion on changing the hours of operation at the Central Office.
5. November is GRATITUDE Month. Please pass the can at your meetings for an extra contribution to support your intergroup service center.

D. Office Manager's Report – Rae W

Third quarter sales and payroll tax deposits and reports will be processed by the October 31st due date.

Many thanks to the Ad Hoc Special Events Committee for a great unity/support event with the I am Responsible theater production.

The next IOCAA Annual Seminar was held in Herndon, VA October 5-8. The Office Manager attended and will give a report back to the OOC as time permits.

The GSO Service piece (F-211) is a card on Safety for AA Groups. That item is still out of stock at GSO. The Order Department will inform us when the item is available.

We have found a Volunteer Coordinator for 2018. Thank you, Beth B. for giving of your time.

E. Treasurer's Report –John G

After a 3-4 year decline in literature sales, they have bounced back this year coming in better than budget. The group contributions are good as well as medallion sales. We are $7,700 in the green for the year. This will probably change over the next few months as the post-picnic lull occurs. The quarterly Balance Sheet report is okay. Our prudent reserve is good.

H. By-Laws & Procedures Chairperson's Report –Kim M no report*I. PI/CPC – Joan T

The Veteran Stand Down in Dixon was postponed from Oct to November 13, 14, and 15th because of the fires. New Committee members Roy, Larry, and Gray will attend. I have been talking to the Committee about the change in Chairpersons in January 2018. It's okay that whoever replaces me has never done PI/CPC work before. You can have fun learning as a group with the new Committee members. Job duties are you meet once a month, go to events as scheduled, make a on what's going on with the Committee and read the report at the Delegate's meeting. The commitment is not very demanding. I hope someone will step up and Chair the Committee it is valuable work.

In Love and Service

Joan T, Chairperson

The next NCCAA 71st Annual Spring Conference will be in San Ramon, CA March 30, 31, April 1, 2018. You can Pre-register on the NCCAA website: <http://www.norcalaa.org>. Please support NCCAA to ensure we can continue to bring conferences to the suffering alcoholics in Northern California.

B. Picnic Committee- Betty K

The 2017 Annual CCFAA Picnic had gross receipts of $ 9,267; expenses were $ 6,520, leaving a net income of $2,747.

There were a few changes from prior years:

- 1) We purchased the canopies, so next year there will be no new expense.
- 2) The Bounce House was new.
- 3) There was no White Elephant, so If you want one next year, get your group to step up and volunteer.
- 4) No pull tabs.

I was the picnic chairperson, but I was one of many. Here's a partial list of groups that supported this year's picnic: North Hall, Raffle; Triangle Group, tickets; East Yolo Fellowship, softball and snow cones (they also store all our supplies during the year!); Greenhaven, Bingo; Elk Grove Fellowship, hot dogs and hamburger/ condiments and potato salad; By the Grace, books; Babes in Recovery, face painting and plants; Natomas Group, cake walk; Galt, drinks; Norm and his sponsees, chili cook-off; Paul S and his group, coffee and lemonade; and CO, T-shirts (Whitney designed and Barbara printed). Special thanks to River City for their help all day, set-up through tear-down! And Thank You to all who attended the 2017 Annual Picnic!! Your support is critical to our success.

1. Special Events Chair position remains vacant for the tenth month. If anyone is interested, please contact the CCF Chair.
2. 2018 Budget Discussion – John G, Treasurer

Questions: 1) What is Payroll Expense Clerical Wages? There are three part time employees.

2) Why do we have a negative budget? I didn't want to fudge the numbers. We are non-profit.

3) Who qualifies for retirement? Office Manager

4) What is Office Expense Miscellaneous? Whatever doesn't fit in any other category.

5) What is In-House Publications? ByTheWay, Schedules, Meeting in a Pocket, trifold brochures, and bookmarks, etc.

6) Where is other literature recorded? I will check with Office Manager.

7) What is Credit Card Fees? This is the cost of having a credit/debit card processor in the bookstore.

Information: Changes from last year

- 1) We put in $2,000 for a new server and software.
- 2) We put in 5% increase for rent (new lease 5/31/18).
- 3) We put in 5% for a new HVAC unit.

VII. New Business –

1. Special Needs Chair has resigned. Is there anyone today who is interested?
2. SACYPAA requested support for a bid to host All California Young People of Alcoholic Anonymous. CCF has done this in the past. Motion was made to support this bid and passed. One nay vote: concern about accepting outside money.

VIII. Closing – Meeting closed at 4:47 PM

Respectfully submitted, Karen Y, Recording Secretary

Spiritual Growth

The point is, that we are willing to grow along spiritual lines.
The principles we have set down are guides to progress.
We claim spiritual progress rather than spiritual perfection.
