

Privacy Statement

The information provided is to explain our online information practices and the choices you have in the way information is collected and used on this website.

BY ACCESSING OR USING THE SITE, YOU AGREE TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY, DO NOT USE THE SITE

The Information We Collect

At Central California Fellowship's website, we do not require personally identifiable information from you in order to access and use the website. Certain functions, such as online information or registration forms, do require you to voluntarily submit personally identifiable information, which may include name, organization, address, and telephone and fax numbers.

How We Use the Information

Any personally identifiable information submitted by you is kept strictly confidential and separately from the website, and is used solely by Central California Fellowship to provide the information that you requested. We do not provide or forward personally identifiable information to any organization.

Cookies

Portions of Central California Fellowship's website use "cookies." Cookies are small text files placed on your computer. Central California Fellowship uses cookies to facilitate your ongoing access to and use of the website, to track site usage, and to compile non-personal aggregate data in order to improve content and efficiency on the website. We do not link personally identifiable information submitted by you through the online forms on Central California Fellowship's website to the data stored in the cookies.

Most browsers and certain third-party utilities allow you to accept or deny cookies from this or any other website. If you deny the use of cookies, you will still be able to use our website.

Third Party Sites

Portions of Central California Fellowship's website contain links to other websites. You should consult the other website's privacy statement for more information, as those practices may differ from ours.

Third Party Webservices

Portions of Central California Fellowship's website accesses webservices and information from other websites to make finding meetings more convenient.

Security

We make commercially reasonable efforts to keep your Personal Information secure. We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information when you place an order or enter, submit, or access your personal information.

We offer the use of a secure server. All supplied sensitive/credit information is transmitted via Secure Socket Layer (“SSL”) technology and then encrypted into our payment gateway provider’s database only to be accessible by those authorized with special access rights to such systems and are required to keep the information confidential. After a transaction, your credit card information will not be stored on our servers.
