October 2021

Spiritual Axiom

Before we ask what a spot-check inventory is, let's look at the kind of setting in which such an inventory can do its work.

It is a spiritual axiom that every time we are disturbed, no matter what the cause, there is something wrong with us. If somebody hurts us and we are sore, we are in the wrong also. But are there no exceptions to this rule? What about "justifiable" anger? If somebody cheats us, aren't we entitled to be mad? Can't we be properly angry with self-righteous folk? For us of A.A. these are dangerous exceptions. We have found that justified anger ought to be left to those better qualified to handle it.

Few people have been more victimized by resentments than have we alcoholics. It mattered little whether our resentments were justified or not. A burst of temper could spoil a day, and a well-nursed grudge could make us miserably ineffective. Nor were we ever skillful in separating justified from unjustified anger. As we saw it, our wrath was always justified. Anger, that occasional luxury of more balanced people, could keep us on an emotional jag indefinitely. These emotional "dry benders" often led straight to the bottle. Other kinds of disturbances—jealousy, envy, self-pity, or hurt pride—did the same thing.

A spot-check inventory taken in the midst of such disturbances can be of very great help in quieting stormy emotions. Today's spot check finds its chief application to situations which arise in each day's march. The consideration of long-standing difficulties had better be postponed, when possible, to times deliberately set aside for that purpose. The quick inventory is aimed at our daily ups and downs, especially those where people or new events throw us off balance and tempt us to make mistakes.

In all these situations we need self-restraint, honest analysis of what is involved, a willingness to admit when the fault is ours and an equal willingness to forgive when the fault is elsewhere. We need not be discouraged when we fall into the error of our old ways, for these disciplines are not easy. We shall look for progress, not for perfection.

A.A. Teleservice Needs YOU!!

Alcoholics Anonymous Teleservice, also known as the A.A. hotline, serves alcoholics who are in need of help. We help them to locate meetings in their area or provide them with someone to talk to in times of crisis.

 This is a great way to be of service to your fellow alcoholics. All you need is the use of a phone and a current meeting schedule. From the comfort of your own home on a landline telephone or even while you're out and about with the use of a cell phone you can be of service.

 We would love to have you join our team. If you have at least six (6) months of sobriety and would like to be of service please contact Central Office at 916-454-1771 or email: hotlinehelpers@gmail.com

I. Approval of Minutes

Motion to Accept Minutes from August 2021 - Approved

II. Trusted Servant Reports*☐ Delegate Chair's Report – John E.

I attended the OOC Meeting Tuesday evening, September 14, 2021. All members were present and a quorum was determined.

Our Prudent Reserve is on track to be back to a four month Reserve by the end of the year, and today I am pleased to announce that we have transferred another $4,000 to that account. Our Treasurer will have more details on that transaction and where we stand in relation to our goal. I want to thank all of the Delegates and their Groups for the generous contributions and for participating in our 7th Tradition.

The 2022 Budget has been sent to you in the email packet of reports for today's meeting. The discussion on the budget will be held at the October meeting, and the vote to accept will be on the November Agenda. I want to thank all of the Committee Chairs that provided input, the Board members and our Office Staff for help in developing our balanced budget for 2022. With the support of all of our member groups and the 7th Tradition, we should be able to meet all of our goals and have a successful 2022.

Now let's continue our Officer and Committee Chair reports.

- The National AA Technology Workshop is being held this weekend, September 17-19. <https://naatw.org/> There is still time to join, as it continues through 3:00 pm Pacific time on Sunday.
- There will be a Grapevine Writing Workshop held on September 25th from 1:00 to 4:00 pm at the Traditional Group (2625 Alta Arden, Sacramento).

- AA World Services (AAWS) has had a 10% increase in revenues with a small increase in expenses. It projects a $700,000 surplus this year, which will be put into the reserve, bringing the reserve to $12.5 million. That represents 8.4 months of operating expenses. The AA Service Manual identifies a target of 9-12 months of operating expenses. The Grapevine is now in the black, but La Viña has a $160,000 shortfall.
- The AA International Convention in 2025 will be held in Vancouver, Canada July 2-5, 2025. 48,000+ attendees from around the world are expected, making it the largest convention in Vancouver history. Save the date! They are also looking for themes for the event. You can submit your ideas through the CNIA website, give them to your GSR who can make sure it gets to our area Delegate (Tom A.).
- Just a reminder – All CNIA events will be held on Zoom for the rest of this panel (to the end of 2021). That includes the monthly Area Committee Meetings and the Election Assembly (November 12-14). All are welcome to attend. The Winter Assembly (Jan. 15-16) is planned to be held in-person, hosted by District 33 (Sonora/Jamestown).
- For more events and other CNIA information, visit the CNIA website <https://cnia.org/> or ask me. Please consider reading the CNIA newsletter, Accents, available on the CNIA website to get detail about what is going on with your district and the various Area committees.

Three Choices

excerpt

The immediate object of our quest is sobriety—freedom from alcohol and from all its baleful consequences.. Without this freedom, we have nothing at all.

Paradoxically, though, we can achieve no liberation from the alcohol obsession until we become willing to deal with those character defects which have landed us in that helpless condition. In this freedom quest, we are always given three choices.

A rebellious refusal to work upon our glaring defects can be an almost certain ticket to destruction. Or, perhaps for a time, we can stay sober with a minimum of self-improvement and settle ourselves into a comfortable but often dangerous mediocrity. Or, finally, we can continuously try hard for those sterling qualities that can add up to fineness of spirit and action—true and lasting freedom under God.

As Bill Sees It, p.327

The Tenth Step

“We vigorously commenced this way of living as we cleaned up the past. We have entered the world of the Spirit. Our next function is to grow in understanding and effectiveness. This is not an overnight matter. It should continue for our lifetime. Continue to watch for selfishness, dishonesty, resentment, and fear. When these crop up, we ask God at once to remove them. We discuss them with someone immediately and make amends quickly if we have harmed anyone. Then we resolutely turn our thoughts to someone we can help. Love and tolerance of others is our code.”

-- Alcoholics Anonymous, Big Book, pg. 86

“A continuous look at our assets and liabilities, and a real desire to learn and grow by this means, are necessities for us. We alcoholics have learned this the hard way.”

-- Alcoholics Anonymous, Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, pg. 88

The Tenth Tradition

“Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the A.A. name ought never be drawn into public controversy.”

“...we do not enter into public controversy, because we know that our Society will perish if it does. We conceive the survival and spread of Alcoholics Anonymous to be something of far greater importance than the weight we could collectively throw back of any other cause. Since recovery from alcoholism is life itself to us, it is imperative that we preserve in full strength our means of survival. Maybe this sounds as though the alcoholics in A.A. had suddenly gone peaceable, and become one great big happy family. Of course, this isn't so at all. Human beings that we are, we squabble.

-- Alcoholics Anonymous, Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, pg. 178

“No A.A. group or member should ever, in such a way as to implicate A.A., express any opinion on outside controversial issues—particularly those of politics, alcohol reform, or sectarian religion. The Alcoholics Anonymous groups oppose no one. Concerning such matters they can express no views whatever.”

Alcoholics Anonymous, Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, Traditions long form pg. 193

The Tenth Concept

“Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority, with the scope of such authority well defined.”

-- Alcoholics Anonymous - The Twelve Concepts (Short Form), pg. 575
