Something Powerful in My Corner

Here in prison, it's sometimes really difficult to do the right thing all the time. I try really hard. I'm successful most of the time, but it often comes at a price. I work in a prison cable factory. The staff here has trusted me and put me in charge of the chemical room. I know that sounds kind of crazy, but I told them about being a recovering alcoholic. I actually prayed about this before I took the job. Because I work here, sometimes my fellow inmates want things that they shouldn't have. And because I try to be honest in all my affairs, I won't give it to them.

One day last month, that rule of mine got me into confrontation. An inmate thought I should give him something and a confrontation escalated. He told me he was "coming for me."

I have to say, I didn't act totally appropriately because I asked him in a voice that wasn't really nice, "Just how are you coming for me?" After the angry words left my mouth, a voice inside my heart said, "I got you." I believe that was my Higher Power. In that instant, I stepped back and told the man I was arguing with that it really didn't matter what he did, because I have something in my corner that's more powerful than he will ever be.

He stopped and gave me a look. "Well, if you believe in things like that," he said.

"I do," I told him, "And as long as I'm doing what's right, my Higher Power will have my back." I wished him a really nice day, turned and walked away.

I'd like to say I felt 100 percent better, and I did in fact feel a lot better. But there was a little piece of anger still left in me which told me that I was still trying to control it. I was holding onto that character defect. I wasn't trusting my Higher Power 100 percent. So, I stopped and prayed and asked him to remove it. That was when the peace came.

I went back to my cell block and the first thing I did was talk to my sponsor and tell him everything that had happened. I wanted to know if there was anything that I did for which I needed to make amends.

Sometimes, being honest and doing the right thing in this place isn't very easy. But I have seen over and over again, especially from my sponsor, that it is worth it.

I don't do this AA thing perfectly, but I sure am trying to do my best. The more I use the gifts that have been given to me—my sponsor, my Grapevine, the Big Book, meetings and the fellowship—the easier it will be.

We were only able to start an AA meeting here at our prison. Sometimes having a meeting is hit or miss, depending on the staff. One thing I can always count on though, is my Grapevines. Thank you so much, Grapevine, for doing what you do.

Writing Prompt:

"Indeed, the attainment of greater humility is the foundation principle of each of A.A.'s Twelve Steps. For without some degree of humility, no alcoholic can stay sober at all. Nearly all A.A.'s have found, too, that unless they develop much more of this precious quality than may be required just for sobriety, they still haven't much chance of becoming truly happy. Without it, they cannot live to much useful purpose, or, in adversity, be able to summon the faith that can meet any emergency."

-Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions p. 70

Please share your thoughts about this passage and/or of the importance of humbly taking Step 7 from your own experience.

CENTRAL OFFICE SPECIAL OF THE MONTH

A.A. Tradition--How it Developed

Pamphlet Sale Price $0.35

This pamphlet tells the story of the emergence and development of the principles believed essential to A.A. unity and survival.

Bill W.'s 1946-1947 Grapevine articles on the Traditions trace the evolution of principles for A.A. unity and growth.

The Seventh Step

“Humbly ask him to remove our shortcomings.”

“Since this Step so specifically concerns itself with humility, we should pause here to consider what humility is and what the practice of it can mean to us.

Indeed, the attainment of greater humility is the foundation principle of each of A. A.'s Twelve Steps. For without some degree of humility, no alcoholic can stay sober at all. Nearly all A. A.'s have found too, that unless they develop much more of this precious quality than may be required just for sobriety, they still haven't much chance of becoming truly happy. Without it, they cannot live to much useful purpose, or, in adversity, be able to summon the faith that can meet any emergency.”

Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, pg 70 -

The Seventh Tradition

“Every A.A. group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.”

Self-supporting Alcoholics? Who ever heard of such a thing? Yet we find that's what we have to be. This principle is telling evidence of the profound change that A.A. has wrought in all of us. Everybody knows that active alcoholics scream that they have no troubles money can't cure. Always, we've had our hands out. Time out of mind we've been dependent upon somebody, usually money-wise. When a society composed entirely of alcoholics says it's going to pay its bills, that's really news.

--Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, pg. 160

The Seventh Concept

The Conference recognizes that the Charter and the Bylaws of the General Service Board are legal instruments: that the Trustees are thereby fully empowered to manage and conduct all of the world service affairs of Alcoholics Anonymous. It is further understood that the Conference Charter itself is not a legal document: that it relies instead upon the force of tradition and the power of the A.A. purse for its final effectiveness.

Plenty of service needed!

Please attend if interested in being of service.

Join the BTW Committee in Service!!

In 2020, the By the Way newsletter transitioned to using an online platform, and a BTW committee was formed. The committee could begin to collaborate and work alongside Central Office workers to create and publish the BTW each month. Long-time CO Webmaster Pete B. was a main character building these pages and the structure to continue regularly. Pete consistently recruited new members, taught us the mechanics of publication, and was invaluable to carrying the message to our community. He passed in May, and his infectious laugh and willingness to try new ideas and teach someone a new skill will forever remain part of the legacy of BTW service.

The BTW committee seeks volunteers with the same spirit Pete carried while with us. His legacy lives on in each publication!

Anyone interested in learning how you can be of service to our BTW committee, please contact thebtw@aaacramento.org or contact Central Office.

All computer skill sets are valuable, and we will train and orient anyone interested in service!

Annual CCF Audit Report

Special Audit Committee convened and completed the audit required by the bylaws on May 23, 2023.

The Audit Committee reviewed the policies and followed the procedures for depositing and accounting for receipts, reviewed deposits, bank records and reconciliations. The committee reviewed balance sheets and financial statements for the period.

The Audit Committee reported its findings as follows:

The office is performing accounting duties in accordance with directives set forth in the operating procedures and the bylaws. A discrepancy was found in accounts payable, and it was recommended by the audit committee that a CPA be consulted for resolution of the discrepancies, which were determined to be clerical in nature.

Since the audit was performed it was reported the discrepancies have been resolved in consultation with a CPA, and a plan of action moving forward which will eliminate the potential for any further clerical errors of this nature.

Respectfully submitted,

Shannon R.

- Delegate Chair's Report – Laura B.

- I attended the Board of Directors meeting on June 13, 2023. Several topics of importance were discussed, including proposed amendments to the bylaws that you'll be hearing more about later in the meeting. While it may not always be exciting to think about these documents, they are vitally important. Thank you to Greg B. and all the members of the BLOPS committee, for the amazing and intensive work you all did to bring well-informed and congruent revisions before the Delegate body.

Special Audit Committee The summary report will be presented to you later in the meeting today. Thank you to Shannon R. and Regina N. and to Robin and Al E. for their assistance.

There are opportunities to help with teleservice, volunteering in the office, serving on committees, helping with the By The Way, and so much more. Please take a few minutes to reach out to the Central Office and ask how you can be of service. We all need each other to carry the torch and be there for one another as we trudge the road to happy destiny.

Picnic! The picnic is coming up! There are many new and exciting details for this year's event. Such a wonderful time to reconnect with old friends and make new ones. Fellowship is important. It helps build the unity that we value so highly. Please take the information back to your groups. Please consider volunteering for service.

- 35th Annual Auburn Fellowship 35th Unity Day – CCFAA will host an information table. Come out and see us! Saturday July 15, 10am-8pm @ Auburn Grace Community Church, Auburn, CA. Pre-registrations start @$15 w/dinner $25 and must be received by July 1st. More information available <https://aaasacramento.org/event/35th-annual-auburn-fellowship-unity-day-2023/>
- It was asked recently asked, "Could CCFAA provide Zoom Access to those smaller meetings who have difficulty paying for a Zoom?" This question was discussed at our recent Board Meeting.
 - Unfortunately, in order to be able to maintain Zoom Meetings on the CCFAA Zoom Account, without conflicts, it would require purchasing additional Zoom licenses. There are no additional discounts available for this. It is very cost prohibitive.
 - It was brought to our attention and I think the following suggestion is a simple and elegant solution.
 - There are already Groups/Meetings that are sharing their Zoom accounts and splitting the cost. Looking to partner with other Meetings/Groups that meet virtually at different times than yours could be a way to help cut costs, or simply to help another meeting out. You can find a complete list of all Zoom Meetings at: https://aaasacramento.org/meetings/?tsml-day=any&tsml-attendance_option=online
- Please ask your Group Treasurers to ensure that the Central Office has their correct information on file. ie. Mailing address for invoices/receipts, Treasurer contact number and email address.
 - This information should be emailed to centraloffice@aaasacramento.org. It's also important to remember to update this information when Trusted Servants rotate.
 - When sending in payments please make sure your payments Include, Group Name, Group Number, Invoice Numbers, etc.
- I want to express my appreciation to the CCFAA Board Members, Committee Chairs, Group Delegates, and our Office Volunteers and Staff. It's truly a collective effort that helps to ensure that our Greater Sacramento Area AA Fellowship continues and is here for the alcoholic today and in the future.
