A Fresh Start

January reminds me of a fresh new start. To be honest I don't have to wait until January 1st to start a new years resolution.

You see we've been given a blueprint for living a better life, the 12-steps of Alcoholics Anonymous, a design for living. Which we can really kick start any time of the year.

My journey to a fresh new start began when I discovered that I was a real alcoholic. The disease chose me. Once I accepted this truth and decided to get honest. I asked my sponsor, "What do I have to do?" She told me I had to learn to be open minded and be willing to take the steps into the unknown.

Seemingly, though came the days I felt alone. You all came through and taught me that there was nothing that I could not do if I put my will into the hands of my higher power and take action. Somehow, I knew I would find a new life as I powered through.

Though I could not see where I was going I knew that there were promises to obtain. So I kept on believing and invested my time into AA and being of service.

Suddenly a God, of my own understanding, held me up when fear and doubt would strike. My chains of slavery to alcohol were broken and with the help of my higher power I remained sober and was given a fresh new start.

Thank you AA for the 12-steps solution, a New Year Resolution that can be taken anytime of the year.

Serenity Prayer on reverse side.

A wonderful revision to a classic keepsake, this medallion features the timeless symbol of contact with one's higher power, the praying hands, featured on a background of blue glitter under a glossy surface.

Description: Pewter, 1 5/16" diameter with glitter paint

We want your work!

Submit recovery artwork, writings, jokes...

By The Way always welcomes content contributions! The theme for each month is the step, tradition, and concept for the number of each month.

Writing Prompt:

In what ways did you discover that you are powerless over alcohol, in what ways was your life unmanageable? We would like to hear your stories as it relates to step 1 of the 12-steps of AA. Or how about honesty, in what ways did being honest help you recover?

Was it hard for you to be honest or easy? Were you relieved or did it just make it harder? We all come into recovery on different paths and we would like to hear about your journey.

The First Step

“We admitted we were powerless over alcohol - that our lives had become unmanageable..”

We know that little good can come to any alcoholic who joins A.A. unless he has first accepted his devastating weakness and all its consequences. Until he humbles himself, his sobriety-if any-will be precarious.

Page 21, Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions

The First Tradition

“Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends on A.A. unity.”

No A.A. can compel another to do anything; Nobody can be punished or expelled. Our Twelve Steps to recovery are suggestions; The Twelve Traditions which guarantee A.A.'s unity contains not a single “Don't”.

Page 129, Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions

The First Concept

“The final responsibility and the ultimate authority for AA world services should always reside in the collective conscience of the Fellowship.”

Alcoholics Anonymous has been called an upside-down organization because the “ultimate responsibility and final authority for . . . world services” resides with the groups — rather than with the trustees of the General Service Board or the General Service Office in New York.

☐ Board Chair's Report – Jason S.

☐ As this will be my last Delegates Meeting as Board Chair, I wish to thank everyone who has been of service to CCFAA over this past year. I am filled with so much gratitude to be able to serve alongside the other Board Members, Committee Chairs, Delegates and all those who help to support CCFAA.

☐ I attended the Board Meeting on Tuesday 12/12 at 6pm. Two members were absent. • Here are some items I wish to share and highlight.

☐ After last month's Elections we still have the positions open. Please consider making yourself available for one of the positions.

☐ Per our Operating Procedures the end of year inventory was completed on December 10th. I'm happy to report that Robin and her staff do a great job managing the inventory and there were no areas of concern.

☐ The Board was presented with several new motions. We reviewed and approved them to be presented to the Delegate Body in January.

☐ Included with today's reports is a copy of the updated Delegates Handbook. Many Thanks to the BLOPS Committee for their hard work in getting it updated for us. It is also available on the website at <https://aasacramento.org/ccf-delegates-information/>

I wish everyone a very Happy Holiday Season and a great New Year. Submitted in Love and Service, Jason S., Board Chair

☐ Treasurer's Report – Al E.

Please reference the Profit and Loss YTD Comparison November 2023 included in the attachments. Highlighted items reflect information in this report.

Thank you to our Volunteers, and special workers, Robin office manager, and staff.

November's deposits, expenses, payables, and bank reconciliation have been audited. Everything checks out and signed copies are on file at the CCFAA office.

1. Literature sales were great for the month at $8,539 on a budget of $6,000. [line 4020]
2. Medallion sales were good at $2,830 with a $2917 budget [line 4035].
3. Group Contribution was cold at $6,990 as we budgeted $10,750 [line 4100]. Thanks to all the groups for the contributions to keep the office going for our fellowship.
4. Birthday contributions off a bit $148 on a budget of $167 [line 4120]. Thank you AA for my sobriety!!!! Get the word out and HAPPY BIRTHDAY.
5. Faithful Fivers income was off slightly at $1,069 as we budgeted $1,250 [line 4130]. (this is a great way for us, as individuals, to directly monthly support CCFAA. Sign up today at www.aasacramento.org click on DONATE then FAITHFUL FIVER. Easy peasy.
6. Special Events Revenue was $847. What a fun night for fellowship.
7. Total Income was down for November with $21,967 on a budget of $23,268. [Total Income line]. Most groups make contributions at the end of each quarter. This was an off month.
8. Cost-of-Goods-Sold was good, $6,366 with our budget of $7,481. [Total COGS].
9. Expenses were fantastic $14,528 as our budget is $16,787. Thanks to our office manager
10. November's net income was OK for last month $1,072.

Prudent Reserve – Is currently $101,052 which is 6 months of operating expenses for that next rainy day. We are looking at this regularly.

We, as members of Alcoholics Anonymous, are helping to make great investments in the future of our Central Office. Thanks to each and every one and your groups for that.

Thank you ALL for your support and involvement with CCFAA. Bring a friend.

*Please take the following back to your groups -

- a) Supporting CCFAA helps bring service to our AA groups and meetings with Literature, Hot Line, Special Events, By The Way Newsletter, Sobriety Chips, and so much more.
- b) The NEWLY REMODELED store is open (Open Mon-Fri 9-5 and Saturdays 10-2)
- c) Contributions can also be made anytime by Venmo, PayPal, Check, or Cash.

Any question can be directed to my contact information below. Regards, Al Edwards cfo@aasacramento.org

☐ Business Office Manager's Report – Robin T.

☐ Call for Stories for the A.A. Pamphlet Do You Think You're Different?

In compliance with a 2022 Conference Advisory Action the Trustees Literature Committee is seeking submissions from AA members with diverse backgrounds in order to update the A.A. pamphlet "Do You Think You're Different?" with stories that represent a greater diversity.

In particular, stories are sought from A.A. members that reflect multicultural backgrounds, those who have multiple alienating factors, as well as stories from more diverse populations not addressed in current A.A. literature.

Alcoholics Anonymous Facsimile First Printing of the First Edition

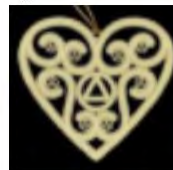

This special edition of Alcoholics Anonymous is a reproduction of the first printing of the first edition of the Big Book as it was published in 1939. This faithful replica of the original — featuring red cloth binding, thick paper, and the colorful "circus cover." Our Great Responsibility

A selection of Bill W.'s General Service Conference talks from 1951 to 1970. Timeless and timely, these 16 talks give fresh perspectives on the A.A. Fellowship in our co-founder's own words. Chapters also cover the early history of Alcoholics Anonymous and include talks given by early "friends of A.A." With over 60 color and black-and-white images.

AA Ornaments – Sale Price $6.99 – $8.99 + tax

Have a Happy, Joyous and Free Holiday Season with these 3" metal or etched glass Ornaments. Add a little Serenity to your tree this season or hang and display anywhere for enjoyment all year long.

AA Membership Survey Results – The results of the Alcoholics Anonymous 2022 Membership Survey are available online for everyone to review. I encourage everyone to read through it and learn about who makes up AA today. <https://www.aa.org/membership-survey-2022>

I want to say thank you to the members of the Board, the Committee Chairs, and all of the Delegates. Your service and contribution over this past year for the Central Office is greatly appreciated. It has been my honor to work and serve with all of you. I wish you joy and all the best in your next adventure. Gratitude to all the groups, fellowships, and members for your support and dedication this year to the Central Office. Your unwavering generosity was felt and very much appreciated by all of us here. The volunteer staff and special workers all say a big "Thank You" and wish you a very Happy Holidays!

PI/CPC Chair's – Annie R.

Below is a sample of our Outreach Packets specific to the medical field and the underserved.

PICPC will provide these pamphlet packets FREE OF CHARGE to your group members. Reachout to us at: ccfpicpc@aasacramento.org.

My Chair term has been very educational and rewarding, particularly for my Program. I've learned how to better listen to others' opinions, to recognize when my expectations become a resentment, that when I am disturbed, there is an issue with me, and how to better maintain my boundaries. Longtime PICPC Chairs from around the world – some with 20+ years of PICPC experience - are eager to be of assistance at any time. I'd highly encourage you to throw your name into the hat. You won't regret it.

- ☐ Again, PICPC is always in need of volunteers, regardless of time constraints. Vote for a member of your group to be your PICPC committee.

Monthly Committee Meeting Schedule:

1st Wednesday of the month beginning at 6:30 (next meetings on 11/1 & 12/6). We encourage those new to PI/CPC to join us at 6pm so we may get to know you. Zoom Meeting: 920 8828 8921 Passcode: 013192
Thank you for allowing me to be of service. - Annie R., Chair

☐ By Laws & Procedures Chair's Report – Greg B.

- ☐ The Committee members are Rod F. from the Traditional Group, Shelby G. from the AA Unity Group, and Greg B. from The How and The Why of It Men's Group.
- ☐ The Committee has met three since the last Delegate Meeting to work on requests made by the Board.
- The Committee has drafted and approved recommendations for revisions to the Delegate Handbook, which was provided to the Board for their review and approval on December 12, 2023.
 - The Committee also drafted and approved motions to change the $500 Delegate approval threshold for obligations and disbursements to $1,000.
 - The changes affect two provisions in the Bylaws and three provisions in the Operating Procedures.
 - The Committee also drafted and approved a motion to revise the term remuneration in the Operating Procedures addressing the Office Manager's annual review to include CCF's contributions toward health insurance and retirement.
- ☐ With the completion of the above projects, the Committee has finished our agenda for the year, with the exception of the transition to the new Committee, which we will undertake once the new committee chair is elected.
- The Committee would like to express its deep appreciation for the support that the Delegates and the members of the Board of Directors provided throughout the year. We are grateful to have had the opportunity to serve CCFAA.

I. Reports – Special Committees, Delegates, Liaisons & Invited Guests
